RESOLUTION NO. 2018-04

At a regular meeting of the Ovid City Council held on the 12th, day of March, 2018 in the Council Chamber room, located at 114 E. Front Street, at 7:00 p.m.

PRESENT: Ms. Perrien, Mr. Ordiway, Mr. Moore, Mr. Williams and Mr. Zwick

ABSENT: Mr. Lasher and Mr. Brown entered at 7:15 pm. Josy Medina-Clerk

A motion was made Mr. Moore, supported by Ms. Perrien to adopt the following resolution:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. WHEREAS; the Ovid-Elsie School District has offered the North Elementary property for sale; and
2. WHEREAS; the property includes the athletic fields used by the youth of the City of Ovid and the surrounding areas (the parcel the school sits on runs east-west across the entire property including part of Ackley Field); and
3. WHEREAS; since the city has leased the athletic fields and maintained them since 1975 or thereabouts; and
4. WHEREAS; since the city has made numerous capital investments including at Ackley Field purchasing new lights and fencing for the field; and
5. WHEREAS; many members of the community worked tirelessly to acquire the Kellogg grant that rebuilt and improved the football field; and
6. WHEREAS; many parents and supporters of the youth that use the athletic fields, have invested many hours of their talents, skills, and labor along with considerable financial investment to construct the concession stand, announcers/equipment stand and otherwise improved the property.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the city desires to own the athletic fields west of North Elementary and preserve them for the use and enjoyment of the city's and surrounding areas youth.

Roll Call:

AYES: Mr. Ordiway, Mr. Brown, Ms. Perrien, Mr. Moore, Mr. Williams and Mr. Zwick

NAYS: None

ABSENT: Mr. Lasher
